

OH 60/2 – Interview with Alfredo Floramo

TAPE 1, SIDE A - Working on the fruit blocks

And how long did you stay in Adelaide?

About, nearly two years I would say. No, not quite. Not quite two years. Because I met with a friend there and he said, well let's go and pick grapes up in the Upper Murray, which he had done a year before. And so we did. We come up with a motorbike and went to pick for a Mrs. and a Mr. Moss in Monash, and we became very very friendly. She was like a mother to me. Been friendly ever since actually with the family.
