

OH 60/2 – Interview with Alfredo Floramo

TAPE 1, SIDE A - Working on the fruit blocks

Oh well, we came back here and we look at your calendar and look at your birth certificate and suddenly you're getting old, so you'd better start doing something before it's too late. So I bought a little property up in Monash. And then the time came...um...when it wasn't too good I took up painting. And the painting business wasn't going too well at the time, so I said well we'd better, there's a lot of growing things and vines. So we bought this other block here and we stayed here and made a nice block out of it. And grapes, we had apricots and things like that.
